【Report】 Aug. 21st ~22nd Summer Holidays Homework Class

15 MeijiGakuin University students helped 15 children who are related with foreign countries with their homework. Though it was the first time for them to meet, they got along well with each other soon. They played the games and practiced the characters. It was a nice summer event for the children to enjoy the study.

【Report】 Sep. 20th Indonesian Home Dishes

22 participants. Reported by Ms. Yoshikawa.

Ms. Sanni taught us 4 dishes: Nasi goreng(Indonesian fried rice), shrimp crackers, tapioca fruit drink, Soto ayam(Spicy chicken soup). People on each table cooperated with each other and made the dishes. Garlic and the deep taste which was difficult to express in words made us feel the real Indonesia. It was just as delicious as I had expected.
