Useful Information[㊟] Do you know “the Child Allowance(Jido Teate)” ?

A child allowance is paid from the city government to persons who live in Japan and raise a child from zero year old to 15 years old.
 Foreigners who have registered as residents in Japan can apply for it.
 The amount of the allowance paid per child is different according to the age and numbers of your children.
 You have to go to the city government to apply for the child allowance.
 If you have My Number Card, you may use your smartphone APP to apply.
 If you don't know how to apply, please come to Konan Lounge and consult at the front desk.

There are information about the allowance you may get after the birth of your child. Consultation is also available.
